

5. Have you been playing the part of the firefighter, by failing to share your faith with those around you? How does that make you feel?
6. Who are the people whose salvation you are most concerned about? What are you doing about it?
7. How can prayer be a substitute for obedience?
8. With whom do you find it more difficult to share your faith: your family and friends, or complete strangers? Why?
9. Did you find it helpful to see someone on the program witnessing?
10. How would you describe your current attitude about the fate of those who are not born again: a) unconcerned; b) concerned; c) alarmed; d) horrified?
11. Do you feel well-equipped to share your faith?
12. What did you think of the conversation with the teenager at the end of the program?

Out of the Comfort Zone Activity

Call two Christians and say, "I'm taking an evangelism course, and as part of the homework I have to ask a friend a few questions. Can you help me with this?" Ask each person the following questions:

1. Do you share your faith regularly? Do you go out of your way to share your faith with strangers?
2. If not, why not?
3. What is the biggest reason you don't share your faith more often?

Write down their answers and bring them to the next session.
