

murderers, rapists, thieves, liars, adulterers, fornicators, and those who have lived in rebellion to His Law and to the inner light that God has given to every man."

But God is also rich in mercy, not wanting anyone to perish. He demonstrated His love for us on the cross. Tell the person, "We broke God's Law and Jesus paid our fine. If you will repent and trust in the Savior, God will forgive your sins and dismiss your case."

The Value of a Soul

If the person you are witnessing to doesn't seem to understand the seriousness of immediately getting right before God, try this: "Would you sell one of your eyes for a million dollars? What about both of them for ten million? Of course you wouldn't—no one in his right mind would—because your eyes are precious to you. If you think about it, your eyes are merely the windows of your soul (your life). Your life 'looks' out of your eyes. If your eyes are precious to you, how much more should you value your life? Jesus said, 'If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the Kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.' Jesus also said, 'What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?' There is nothing more important than your own soul and where you will spend eternity."

Right in His Own Eyes

Many people don't think about the consequences of their actions and don't realize that they themselves are responsible. Consider the way dogs cross the road. A dog will wander onto a freeway oblivious to the danger. His tail wags as he steps between cars without a second thought. Cars swerve. Tires squeal. The noise is deafening as vehicles smash into each other. The sleepy dog stops wagging his tail for a moment and looks at the pile of smoldering, broken cars on the freeway. His expres-
